GLENDALÉ COUNCILMEMBER HUGH SPOTLIGHTS THE GLENDALÉ SUMMER BAND & PROVIDES JAM SESSION ON NEW T.V. SHOW

Glendale, Ariz. — Glendale Councilmember Ian Hugh's new edition of the TV show "Glendale Today" features the beloved Glendale Summer Band. A tradition for 47 years in downtown Glendale, Hugh interviews the band's new director, Ken Jaeger as well as several musicians with connections to the historic ensemble. Topics discussed include the type of music the band plays, dates and times for this summer's performances, how to become a member of the band and its nearly 50-year history.

Hugh, a lifelong musician who has played in numerous bands including the Glendale Summer Band, also provides viewers with a jam session featuring him on the trombone and seven other local musicians. The Glendale Summer Band's eight week concert series runs from Thursday June 6 at 8 p.m. through July 25, in the Murphy Park Amphitheater, located in historic downtown Glendale at 59th Ave. and Glenn Dr. The band performs every Thursday with the exception of the Fourth of July holiday week when the band will perform on Wednesday, July 3.

The 30-minute TV show, produced by the staff at the city's TV station, Glendale 11, will air Monday, May 13 at 6:30 p.m. and will then air daily on Glendale 11 as well as online via the city's video library at www.glendaleaz.com/video. Exclusive segments can be found on the city's YouTube channel at www.youtube.com/MyGlendale11.
